

Dear Sir: I strongly endorse the proposal to separate SSB operations from CW operations on the 160m band. I spend virtually all my time on 160m searching for and listening to weak CW signals and have had these communications totally obliterated by SSB signals either on frequency, or so close that the narrowest band pass filter did not help.

Respectfully submitted,]

Michael J McGirr, MD